

The Clevedon Valley Music Foundation Trust presents the fourth concert of its inaugural series:

SUNDAY SERENADES

at ST ANDREW'S with

"Young People Today"

Sunday 7th October, 1.45 pm – 2.40 pm

Clevedon Presbyterian Church

Featuring some of the region's exceptional young performers who are set to be leading exponents in their chosen instrument – piano, voice, violoncello, harp and clarinet – with Sophia Liu, Ethan Chiao, Daniel Xian, Tiari Kaka, Oliver Vannoort, Martin Moattar, Esther Philip, Harrison Chau & Crissy Sanders

A beautiful programme of solo and ensemble music from the early great classical composers to Musicals and modern works.

Proceeds to various charitable projects. Entrance/exit donation – all welcome! Light refreshments served at the conclusion of the concert. For further information, check out CVMFT on Facebook or enquiries@cvmft.org

More events/concerts at St Andrews: Sun Dec 16 at 7.30pm: The popular Carol Service returns with a remarkable choir and orchestral ensemble. Rehearsals Wed 7.30pm from Nov 7th. All ages and levels welcome

Dates for our exciting Sunday Serenade 2019 programme will be released very shortly. We have some extraordinary performers lined up... including the 2018 Lexus Song Winner, South Auckland, Joel Amosa and his talented soprano wife, Maia. Keep a watch on our Facebook page and/or www.cvmft.org Registered charity: CC55562

